They should have registered the vehicle. They gave a temporary registration that eventually expired. After 2 months of calls we were unable to use the vehicle because the temporary registration expired and they never registered the vehicle. Our insurance company refused coverage because Jeep was never registered to the NYSDMV. I finally spoke to Laura in Arroway and she said there was a problem with miles on the title. Then she sent us a dealer's license plate and an insurance card. The insurance card expired on 2/19. I call every day for a renewal insurance card. He didn't call back. Now we have a jeep with no insurance. Insurance. It's not registered. And possible fraudulent sales because the miles were inaccurate...
